

PRACTICAL ASSIGNMENT #2
GRAMMAR - MODALS

Exercise 1: Choose the correct word or phrase to complete the blog post.

Good vibrations

I was a keen musician at school, until I got an ear problem which got worse and worse. Before long I (1) couldn't / can't hear anything at all. Deaf people (2) shouldn't / couldn't study at the school so I (3) must / had to leave. I learn to live without sound, but it really got me down. Then one day my old singing teacher phoned and said, "You (4) have to / shouldn't give up on your music. My friend Jack (5) can / ought help you. You (6) may / ought to meet him."

With Jack's help, I discovered that I (7) didn't have to / shouldn't live without music. I found my voice again! I always (8) can / have to take my shoes off now before I sing, so that I (9) can / may feel the vibrations in the floor. An app on my mobile tells me if I'm singing the right note. Music isn't a sound for me now - it's a feeling!

Exercise 2: Complete these sentences with the correct modal verb.

CAN'T - COULD - MAY NOT - MUST - SHOULD - SHOULDN'T

1. Vera be very outgoing because she's always making new friends.
2. If you take this medicine, you feel better in a few days. It works really well.

6. I just want to finish this email. It's only a quick one so I be long.

Exercise 3: Complete the text with one word.

Zander_03 Hi everyone! I want to give you all an update on my last post. My school has given me some special rules for when I do exams. First, I (1) use my laptop for written exams. This is great because I don't have (2) worry about my handwriting. I must take exams in the exam hall, but I don't (3) to finish at the same time as everyone else – I can have an extra 45 minutes. I'm so happy about this, because last year I (4) answer half of the questions – I (5) to read the text and the questions in a time limit, but I couldn't do it. I hope I get much better grades this year. Anyway, I (6) get on with my revision now. I (7) prepare for the history exam!
