

A Read the passage.

Hassan has two older brothers and two younger sisters. Hassan and his family live with his grandparents. Hassan's grandfather and grandmother take care of him and his siblings when their parents go to work.

Hassan's father, Encik Daud works as a manager. He leaves the house at six in the morning as he does not want to get stuck in a jam. His mother, Puan Khatijah works as a nurse. She leaves the house around seven in the morning. Hassan's grandfather, Pak Mail drives Hassan and his siblings to school. Meanwhile Hassan's grandmother Mak Limah cooks for the family. Pak Mail sometimes help her to cook.

Hassan and his older brothers often help their grandparents to do the house chores. His younger sisters don't help as they are too young. They usually play dolls together. The whole family always watches television in the evenings. During the weekends, Encik Daud would usually bring the family out to eat at a restaurant.

Hassan and his siblings often go to bed at 9 p.m., his grandparents go to bed at 10 p.m. and his parents go to bed at 11 p.m.

Although there are a lot of people living at home, everyone gets along well. It sometimes gets a little noisy but it is always exciting.
