Name:		Date:

READING & LISTENING Skill-Building | Vocabulary CLB 3-4

Let it Snow! vocabulary word match

Theme: Canadian Winter

Instructions: Match the words from the Vocabulary List with their definitions. Match the sounds with the Vocabulary words.

A	blizzard		a single piece of falling snow (noun)		🔊
B	accumulation		snow that is partly melted on the ground, and messy (noun)		🔊
C	flurries		snow falling and wind blowing so it's hard to see (noun)		🔊
D	thaw		snow blown into a pile by the wind (noun)		🔊
E	snowdrift		blowing snow that makes it hard for a driver to see the road (noun)		🔊
F	whiteout		the amount of snow that has fallen and not melted (noun)		🔊
G	snowball		falling snow mixed with rain (noun)		🔊
H	snowflake		a small amount of falling snow (noun)		🔊
I	slush		packed snow sometimes used to throw at people for fun (noun)		🔊
J	sleet		change from snow to water (verb)		🔊

© 2021 Fred Koop Design

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Sentences

Instructions: Use the word from the list below to fill in the spaces in the sentences. A word should be used only once, but not every word will be used.

blizzard	accumulation	flurries	thaw	snowdrift
whiteout	snowball	snowflake	slush	sleet

1. There were just a few _____ today – not much snow fell at all.
2. The temperature was just around 0° C. The falling snow was now changing to _____.
3. Suddenly there was a _____. John couldn't see where he was driving!
4. The kids loved jumping into the big _____ at the side of their house.
5. After the snowstorm had stopped, there was an _____ of 10 cm.
6. It's best to stay inside and keep warm during a _____.
7. Matty made a nice big _____, ready to throw at his friend Jim.
8. The temperature warmed up a lot. Now the snow on the streets turned to _____.

What are the two words that are not used above? Write them in the boxes:

Write one sentence each, using them:

9. _____.

10. _____.

© 2021 Fred Koop Design

LIVEWORKSHEETS