

In the Wild

1.- Complete the text with the words in the box.

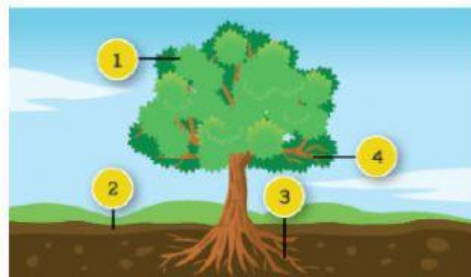

attack	bite	brave	defend	fight
impatient	push	serious	worried

Every day these children swim across the river to get to school. It's a dangerous journey because there are crocodiles in the river. All the children know what to do: if crocodiles you or open their mouths to you - back! them in the eyes or do anything to yourself. The situation is very and the children's parents are very . They have asked for a boat many times and they are getting .

2.- Label the picture.

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____

3.- Complete the advice with should or shouldn't.

1. If you meet a bear, you walk away slowly.
2. If bees attack, run away - you stand still.
3. You feed bears. It's dangerous.
4. You drink a lot of coffee. It's bad for you.
5. If you're worried, you talk to your friend.

4.- Rewrite the sentences with must or mustn't. Start with the words in brackets.

1. Don't run inside the school building.
You
2. It's obligatory to wear a seat belt in a car.
You
3. It's against the rules to talk during the exam.
You
4. It's essential to arrive on time because the bus won't wait.
You

5.- Complete the sentences with the correct form of have to.

1. We are on holiday, so we get up early.
2. you wear a uniform at school?
3. Issie walk to school because there's a good bus service.
4. students stay inside during the lunch break?
5. In Japan, you take off your shoes inside the house - if you don't, it's rude.

6.- Complete the dialogue with the correct information.

White-water rafting

Go with an organised group.

Follow the group's rules.

Wear a helmet and a life jacket.

It's a good idea to wear water shoes.

A Have you tried _____ before?

B No, I haven't. This is my first time?

A OK. First of all, you must _____ and secondly you must

B Do I have to wear special clothes?

A Yes, you have to

B Are there any instructions about equipment?

A Well, you should