

PRESENT SIMPLE, PRESENT CONTINUOUS, PRESENT PERFECT, PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS, OR PAST SIMPLE

Dear Ann,

I _____ (be) in England for a month and I _____ (enjoy) my stay. I _____ (stay) with my aunt's family. She _____ (be) a housewife, so she _____ (spend) most of the time at home. She _____ (do) a lot of cooking and cleaning.

Jane, her daughter, _____ (go) to school. She _____ (go) to the local school for six years now.

Her brother Jack _____ (be) a student at university. He _____ (study) law for two years. He _____ (not come) home very often because he _____ (get) a part-time job in a pizza restaurant three months ago. He _____ (save) up for a motorbike at the moment.

The eldest son, Jim, is a scientist. He _____ (work) for a pharmaceutical company since he _____ (leave) university.

My aunt's husband is a writer. He _____ (write) twenty books. Now he _____ (work) on his last book about the royal families in Europe. He _____ (publish) his first book in 1995.

They also have two pets. They _____ (have) their dog for five years and they _____ (take care) of a guinea pig since last year. Next year they _____ (plan) to buy a cat.

I will tell you more in my next letter.

Take care,

Susan