Artificial Intelligence (AI) is transforming the way people learn languages, making the process more efficient and personalized. With the help of AI-powered tools, learners can practice their English skills anytime and anywhere. Whether through chatbots, speech recognition software, or language learning apps, (13) _____.

One of the biggest advantages of AI in language learning is instant feedback. Traditional methods often require students to wait for teachers to correct their mistakes, but AI can analyze grammar, pronunciation, and vocabulary in real time. As a result, (14) _____, helping them improve faster and more effectively.

Additionally, AI adapts to individual learning styles. Some learners prefer listening, while others benefit more from reading or interactive exercises. AI-driven platforms can identify these preferences and provide customized lessons. This flexibility (15) _____, as they can learn at their own pace without feeling pressured.

In conclusion, AI is a powerful tool for English learners, but it should not replace human interaction entirely. While AI can enhance grammar and pronunciation, (16) _____. A balanced approach, combining AI technology with real conversations, will lead to the best learning outcomes.

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions.

Choosing a career is an important step for 9th-grade students, as it helps them plan their future and set goals. At this age, many students are unsure about what they want to do. Some may think about careers in popular fields like medicine, law, or engineering, while others may feel drawn to creative paths, such as writing, art, or music. It's helpful to explore different career options to understand their interests and abilities.

One way to do this is by talking to professionals, family members, teachers, or even people online, who work in different fields. Students can learn more about what each job involves, the skills it requires, and the challenges they might face. It's also beneficial to try new activities or hobbies to discover hidden talents and passions.

Additionally, choosing subjects in school that match their career interests can be useful. For example, students interested in science might focus on biology or chemistry, while those considering technology could take computer classes. Making these choices early can give students a strong foundation for future studies.

In the end, choosing a career is about understanding oneself and one's goals. Although it's okay not to have everything figured out, taking small steps now can help 9th graders find a career path that is both rewarding and enjoyable.

Question 19. What is the main idea of the passage?
