1. Order the Events.

Put these events in the correct order without looking at the text:

1. Maria kills a policeman.
2. The class sees Mark dead on the floor.
3. Maria confesses.
4. The teacher wakes up and tries to call the Headmistress.
5. The electricity goes off.
6. The narrator starts interrogating Jack.
7. Maria screams.
8. The police arrive.

2. ADJECTIVE EXERCISES

A. Identify the adjectives

List all the adjectives in the following sentences:

1. Maria was the first person who saw the body.
2. The teacher tried to call the Headmistress, but the door was blocked.
3. Jack is the bully. He hated Mark because he took his girlfriend.
4. I felt really scared.
5. Maria told me this was my chance to show how brilliant I am.

B. Replace the adjectives

Change the adjective for a synonym that keeps the meaning:

1. She was the earliest person who saw the body.
2. Jack was very angry.
3. I felt really scared.
4. It was a brilliant idea.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

D. Adjective order practice

Put these adjectives in the correct order
(opinion–size–age–shape–color–origin–material–purpose + noun):

1. wooden / small / old / strange / box
2. angry / tall / young / man
3. illegal / mysterious / dangerous / item

LIVEWORKSHEETS