Items 1-6: Conversation

W: Excuse me, sir, when will my taxi be here? I've been waiting for an hour.

M: I'm sorry; I'm exhausted. What did you say?

W: Oh, did I disturb you? I said I have to get going soon or else I'll miss my flight. My expedition leaves for the mountains in a few hours. I have already been waiting for an hour. Where is the taxi I ordered?

M: Oh, well, this is awkward—I didn't realize you wanted a taxi. I thought you said your name was Maxi. If I'd known you wanted a taxi, I would have called one right away. Just wait one minute, please. I'll do it now.

W: Why is it so hard to find reliable service these days?

M: Hello, is this AYZ Need'a'Taxi? Yes, this is the Hopeless Hotel. I'm going to need a taxi here immediately. In fact, I'd like to pay extra and make it your number one priority. OK, thanks. Bye.

W: I can't believe you ordered priority service for me without asking first. That's really annoying.

M: Don't worry. Hopeless Hotel is prepared to cover all your taxi expenses, and to make sure you get to your expedition on time.

W: That's very thoughtful and generous of you. Thank you very much. I'm impressed.

M: We do our best to provide all our guests with the best possible service. I'm very sorry I didn't call for you earlier.

W: Well, you can expect me to write a very positive review. I'm sorry I was nasty to you.

Items 19-30: Reading

Peter had seen the famous explorer in the audience at the ceremony—he was sure of it. But then, quick as a flash, the explorer had disappeared. Peter ran to find his grandfather, who was sitting in his truck, and tell him all about it. "I don't believe it was Alfred the Explorer. You're obviously imagining things!" his grandfather said, shaking his head. A His grandfather's doubt made Peter feel awkward and discouraged. Up until then, Peter had been having a really great time at the town's annual festival, celebrating traditions alongside the people of his community and enjoying all the different kinds of entertainment and cuisine—from delicious traditional dishes to more modern-day foods like pizza and hotdogs. B Now he felt sad that his grandfather had decided that he was just imagining things. C Peter adored his grandfather, and he wanted to earn back his respect. He was eager to prove that Alfred the Explorer really had been at the ceremony. It wouldn't be easy, but he had no doubt what he needed to do: find
