PAST EXPERIENCES

Lesson 10 B- Expressing surprise

1. Read the conversation. Are they showing that they are listening or expressing surprise? Choose listening or surprised

Casey: I talked to Eve yesterday.

Kristen: Uh huh. _____

Casey: She's in England.

Kristen: Oh, yeah? On vacation? _____

Casey: No. She's playing in a band.

Kristen: You're kidding! _____

Casey: Why?

Kristen: She can't play any instrument…

Casey: What? _____

Kristen: Well, maybe she is singing in band. She can sing very well.

Casey: Really? _____

2. Listen to the conversation. Then choose the correct option to complete it.

A: I visited some relatives on the weekend.

B: Uh-huh. / What?

A: And we stayed out really late on Saturday.

B: You're kidding! Oh, yeah?

A: Yeah… And I didn't study for the exam…

B: You're kidding! / Oh?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Listen to each pair of verbs. Does the verb have an extra syllable in the simple past? Put the verbs in the correct column.

Same syllable	Extra syllable
		walk / walked search / searched dance / danced visit / visited wave / waved create / created turn / turned fix / fixed paint / painted end / ended

LIVEWORKSHEETS