past simple of be: was, were

2 A The sentences below have a mistake. Choose the best option to correct the mistake.

1 Tamara and John aren't at work yesterday.
a was b wasn't c weren't

2 Alice is at home last night.
a was b were c weren't

3 Was you on holiday last month?
a Were b Wasn't c Weren't

4 We weren't at our friend's house last weekend. It was great.
a was b were c wasn't

B Complete the sentences and questions with one word in each gap.

1 Where _____ you yesterday?
2 James _____ very happy as a child.
3 When _____ the first World Cup?
4 Mark and Sylvie _____ on holiday last week. It was really nice for them.
5 A: _____ you in class yesterday?
B: No, I _____. I _____ at work.
6 When _____ Mark Zuckerberg born?
7 My parents _____ born in Germany. They _____ born in Poland.
8 Sandrine _____ at home last night. She _____ at the cinema.
9 Where _____ the first Olympics?
10 The 2016 Olympics _____ in London. They _____ in Rio de Janeiro.

C Choose the correct words to complete the fact file.

Surprising facts: HISTORY

- The first photographic cameras [1]was / were around in the 18th century, and they [2]was / were very slow. Sometimes it [3]was / were thirty minutes to take a photo!
- The Olympic games are only sports these days, but they [4]were / weren't always like that. From 1912 to 1948, there [5]was / were prizes for art, too.
- Most people think Cleopatra was Egyptian, but she [6]wasn't / weren't. She [7]was / were born in Egypt, but her family [8]were / weren't Greek.
- Many people think the Model T Ford [9]was / were the first car, but it wasn't. It [10]was / were Carl Benz's design from 1879.

LIVEWORKSHEETS