1. Which stage is considered full intelligence?

A. 3 - concrete operations

B. 2 - preoperational

C. 4 - formal operations

D. 1 - sensorimotor

2. What age is the sensorimotor stage?

A. Birth - 2

B. 1-3

3. During the sensorimotor stage we learn about the world around us through our

A. reflexes and movements

B. parents and family

C. senses and movements

D. senses and parents

4. To perceive the world only through our own point of view is called

A. egocentric

B. ethnocentricity

C. selfish

D. apathetic

5. The preoperational stage of thinking is characterized

A. daydreaming

B. symbolic thinking and intuitive thought

C. picturing things

D. egocentric views and thought patterns

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. What age is the concrete operational stage

A. 7-11
B. 4-11
C. 11+
D. 2-11

7. The concrete stage of thinking is characterized by

A. the ability to sort and sequence.
B. inductive reasoning
C. All of the above.

8. At this age children begin to understand the concept of conservation - which is...

A. Preserving the environment.
B. When an object changes shape its mass or volume stays the same.
C. saving things for later.

9. By the end of the concrete operational stage, children are able to see and understand someone else's perspective.

A. False
B. True

10. What age does the Formal Operational Stage begin?

A. 8
B. 4

LIVEWORKSHEETS

C. 12

D. 16

.

11. The formal operations stage of thinking is characterized by...

A. abstract thinking and understanding

B. egocentrism

C. empathy

D. the teen years

12. Piaget believed in life long learning, but he believed the final stage of cognitive development started at the age of 12.

A. False

B. True

LIVEWORKSHEETS