Summary Completion Practice Questions

Complete the summary below.
Write NO MORE THAN 2 WORDS for each answer.

The Wrong Side of the Tracks

Recent research has shown that underprivileged people tend to live on the east sides of places due to 1. _____. Because when viewed from the North Pole, the earth rotates in a counterclockwise fashion, winds in both hemispheres are usually blowing towards 2. _____. A result of this is that people living where these winds and pollution are blowing are those with 3. _____. This 4. _____ dynamic is seen not just in American cities but in those all around the world. In fact, British 5. _____ historians have modeled industrial-age smokestack dispersion and come to the same conclusion: that wind and pollution drive 6. _____ communities towards the east. When one considers that most American eastside communities were formed when segregation was 7. _____, it's easy to understand how members of these communities have also been denied loans and financial help, forcing such people into a terrible downward 8. _____ of poverty. As this situation has largely been caused by bad 9. _____, it will be necessary to fix the situation through a 10. _____ to consider city planning that will be beneficial to all.

LIVEWORKSHEETS