Inversions are used to add emphasis

The structure is:

but affirmative meaning!!!!!

negative or restrictive adverb + interrogative structure

Never had I been there before the same sentence without emphasis = I had never been there before

You will hear six speakers, each using a sentence with inversion. Listen to each speaker twice and write down exactly what they say. The answer will be revealed after each speaker, so please pause the recording after the second listening to give yourself enough time to write.
