Unit 3: Tertiary Sector Review Worksheet

1. Match the pictures with the types of retail businesses and descriptions. Join with arrows (the first column with pictures goes with the BLUE part of the word and the GREEN part goes with the description).

a)

Hypermarket

They are usually in city centres or shopping centres. They are smaller businesses that offer only one type of product or service.

b)

Supermarket

They are usually located outside towns and cities. They sell food and many other products, such as clothes, furniture and electronics.

c)

Speciality shop

These are large businesses that sell a variety of different products; usually located in towns and cities, in shopping centres.

2. Write the types of transport. Then classify the means of transport.

a)

_____

c)

_____

b)

_____

d)

_____

Carries products
Tanker
Carries passengers
Carries both

3. Use the map to choose the best form of transport. Write the words in the gaps below.

train	cruise ship	cargo ship	van	aeroplane	lorry

a) To take tourists on a tour of the Canary Islands: _____

b) To transport new cars from Barcelona to Palma de Mallorca: _____

c) To deliver a letter from Toledo to Madrid: _____

d) To transport fresh tomatoes from Murcia to Santander: _____

e) To deliver an urgent package from Tenerife to Barcelona: _____

f) To transport livestock from Zaragoza to Pamplona: _____

4. Complete the table showing the advertising of two different breakfast cereals.

Name of company
Name of product
Who is the product aimed at?

5. Complete the sentences about tertiary-sector jobs. Drag the words.

public safety	administrative	electricians	skilled	education
judges	musicians	nurses	judicial	bank clerks
health sector	firefighters	cultural

a) Doctors, _____and dentists work in the _____.

b) Police officers,_____ , soldiers and security guards work in _____.

c) Mechanics, plumbers and _____work in _____jobs.

d) Secretaries, and _____civil servants do _____work.

e) Writers, _____, actors, painters and sculptors work in _____professions.

f) Lawyers, prosecutors and _____work in the _____system.

g) Teachers work in the _____sector.

6. Multiple choice questions. Choose the correct option.

1. A type of tourism where people experience different foods and lifestyles.
   a) Cultural tourism
   b) Rural tourism
   c) Adventure tourism

2. Being a mechanic is an example of this division of the tertiary sector.
   a) Cultural professions
   b) Judicial jobs
   c) Skilled jobs

3. A smaller type of retail business that offer one product.
   a) Supermarket
   b) Hypermarket
   c) Specialist shop

4. A large type pf retail business.
   a) Supermarket
   b) Hypermarket
   c) Specialist shop

5. This division of the tertiary sector is made of jobs like a tour or museum guide or surf instructor.
   a) Transport
   b) Tourism
   c) Retail

6. Trade is easier between two countries if both countries belong to this.
   a) European Union
   b) The continent of Europe
   c) European League