Name:_____ Date:_____

Completing Comparisons

Part 1: Complete and Correct

Instructions: Complete these paving-related comparisons using the cues, or rewrite the sentence to fix the error.

1. Our new polymer-modified asphalt doesn't rut as quickly as _____ (they - possessive).

2. The daytime crew laid more tons yesterday than _____ (we - subject + auxiliary).

3. Your team's compaction density on the base layer is higher than _____ (we - possessive).

4. Spot the Error: The viscosity of our warm mix is much lower than their.

5. Spot the Error: Site A's subgrade isn't draining as well as Site B do.

6. Spot the Error: Our night shift completed more linear feet of paving than them did.

7. Spot the Error: The binder content in mix A is not as high as mix B are.

8. Spot the Error: Their surface finish looks much smoother than our.

Part 2: Create Your Own Comparisons

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Write your own original sentences comparing different aspects of road paving and asphalt mixtures. Be sure to use possessive pronouns (e.g., ours, theirs) or auxiliary verbs (e.g., do, did, is) in your comparisons.

9. Compare the durability of two different asphalt mixes using more... than.

10. Compare the curing time of today's pour with yesterday's using not as... as.

11. Compare the aggregate size from two different suppliers using as... as.

12. Compare the viscosity of your warm mix vs. a competitor's using less... than.

13. Write a final sentence comparing compaction effort between two job sites using any comparative structure you choose.

LIVEWORKSHEETS