Hi Lucia

How are you? It was so nice to meet you last week in Sydney at the sales meeting. The marketing strategies were a good plan for selling all our products. How was the rest of your trip? Did you see any kangaroos? I hope you got home to Mexico City OK.

Anyway, I have the documents about the new Berlin offices. We're going to be open in three months. I moved here from London just last week. They are very nice offices, and the location is perfect. There are lots of restaurants, cafés and banks in the area. There's also public transport; we are next to an U-Bahn (that is the name for the metro here). Maybe you can come and see them one day. I would love to show you Berlin, especially in the winter. You said you have never seen snow – you will see lots here!

Here's a photo of you and me at the restaurant in Sydney. That was a very fun night! Remember the singing Englishman? Crazy! Please send me any other photos you have of that night. Good memories.

Please give me your email address and I will send you the documents.

Bye for now

Mikel

B. Read the blog post. Choose the correct answers below.

My trip to Rio is going to be amazing! I can't wait to go shopping there! Brazilians dress well, so I always check what's in their stores.

Gilson Martins is a large store in Rio. Sometimes international movie stars shop there! Now, be careful because, as Brazilians say: A única coisa fácil sobre o dinheiro e perdê-lo. It means that the only easy thing about money is losing it. Prices in this store are high, and you can spend lots of money in just one visit.

Perhaps my favorite shopping trip was on my last visit there. I went to the street markets in Ipanema. I found nice leather bags and beautiful pictures. I was careful with what I bought because Brazilians also say: O barato sai caro: Cheap things can be very expensive.

I am going to have so much fun shopping! But I also plan not to spend a lot because: Dinheiro não dá em árvores. Money doesn't grow on trees!
