Independence Day

READING COMPREHENSION ACTIVITY

Independence Day is on July 4th in the United States. It celebrates the country's freedom from Great Britain in 1776. Many people do not work on this day. Families and friends have picnics, barbecues, and parades. Many towns organize special events and concerts. People often wear red, white, and blue clothes because these are the colors of the American flag. In the evening, many people watch fireworks in parks or near rivers. Independence Day is an important national holiday and a time to celebrate together.
