	I am very big and strong. I am grey. I live in Africa. I have four legs. I eat leaves.
	I am very small and usually grey. I have got a long tail. I like cheese.
	I look like a horse but I have got black and white stripes. I live in Africa. I eat grass.
	I am pink and I have a large head with a long snout. I am an omnivore.
	I am a ruminant and feed on grasses and grains. I am raised for meat and milk.
	I am very long and have not got any legs. I eat small animals. I can be dangerous.
	I am a mollusc. My soft body is protected by a hard shell. French people like to eat me!
	I have grasping hands and feet. I can climb trees. I live on nuts and fruit. I love bananas.
	I can swim in the sea and walk on the land. I cannot fly. I eat fish. I live in very cold countries.

	I am a big cat with a mane. My legs are short but powerful. I am a carnivore and a hunter.
	I am a furry, clean and carnivorous mammal. I like to hunt mice, birds and fish. I purr.
	I have four legs. I am the perfect companion for humans. I bark.
	I am a ruminant mammal living on the farm. I am raised for meat, milk but also wool.
	I am a reptile. I look like a big lizard. I can walk or swim. I have scales and sharp teeth.
	I am an Australian marsupial. I have powerful legs to leap. My babies grow into my pouch.
	I am an insect that produces and stores honey. I can sting and this can be very painful!
	I am a reptile. People say I am slow. I am a herbivore. I have a shell that is called a carapace.
	I am a carnivorous mammal with a long snout. I live in a cave and hibernate during winter.