Predicting Outcome Worksheet

Name: _____

Direction: Complete the sentences by putting likely or unlikely in the blank.

1. You are _____ to pass the exam if you did not study.
2. You are _____ to see the rainbow after the rain.
3. You are _____ to catch COVID if you will not follow safety protocols.
4. It is _____ for the chocolate to melt if it is inside the freezer.
5. You are _____ to go to Grade 2 if you will study well.

Direction: Predict what will happen next in each situation. Put a check mark on your answer.

1. Bernard accidentally bumps the flower vase on the table.
   - The flower vase will change its color.
   - The flower vase will break.
2. A bowl of ice cubes was placed outside the refrigerator.
   - The ice cubes will melt.
   - The ice cubes will become colder.
3. A pinch of sugar was put in a glass of hot water.
   - The sugar will become water.
   - The sugar will be mixed with the water.
4. A wet shirt is left hanging under the sun.
   - The shirt will dry faster.
   - The shirt will get bigger.
5. A glass of orange juice was placed inside the refrigerator.
   - The orange juice will become cold.
   - The orange juice will become warm.

LIVEWORKSHEETS