SHIRLEY:
I'm his wife, Shirley, and we (2) _____ the cottages together, so I'm sure I can help you.

TOM:
Great. My name's Tom. Some friends of ours rented Granary Cottage from you last year, and they thought it was great. So my wife and I are hoping to come in (3) _____ for a week.

What date did you have in mind?

TOM:
The week beginning the (4) _____, if possible.

I'll just check ... I'm sorry, Tom, it's already (5) _____ that week. It's free the week beginning the (6) _____, though, for (7) _____ nights. In fact, that's the only time you could have it in May.

TOM:
Oh. Well, we could manage that, I think. We'd just need to change a couple of things. How much would it cost?

SHIRLEY:
That's the beginning of (8) _____, so it'd be (9) £_____ for the week.

TOM:
Ah. That's a bit more than we wanted to pay, I'm afraid. We've budgeted up to (10) £_____ for accommodation.

SHIRLEY:
Well, we've just finished (11) _____ another building into a cottage, which we're calling (12) _____ Cottage.

TOM:
Sorry? What was that again?

SHIRLEY:

Oh, that's a (13) _____, isn't it?

TOM:
OK. So could you tell me something about it, please?

Of course. The building was built as a (16) _____. It's a little smaller than Granary Cottage.

TOM:
So that must sleep (17) _____ people, as well?
