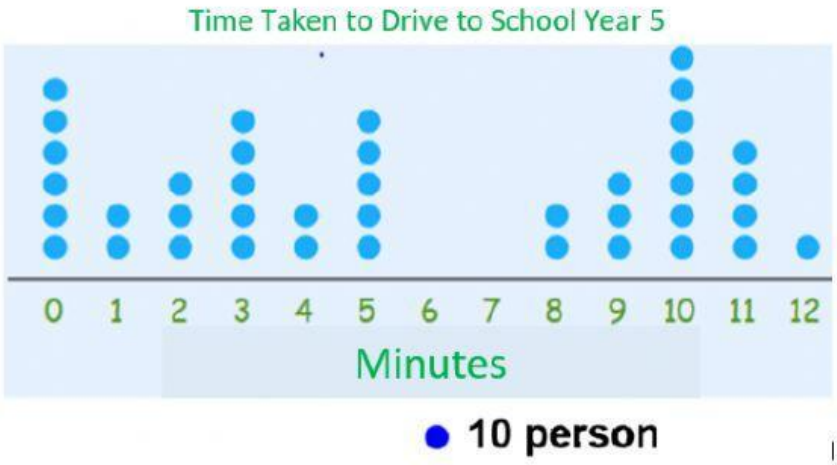
Interpreting Data Set 2



This graph shows: categorical data numerical data

What question was asked to collect this data?

a. Do you drive to school?
b. How do you get to school?
c. How many people drive to school with you?
d. How long does it take you to drive to school?

What amount of time is taken by most people to drive to school? minutes

How many people take less than 1 minute to drive to school?

How many children take 4 minutes to drive to school?

How many children take 7 minutes to drive to school?

How many children take more than 8 minutes to drive to school?

How many children take less than 8 minutes to drive to school?

How many children take more than a minute but less than 5 minutes to drive to school?

How many children were surveyed to collect this data?

What is does each dot on the graph represent? children

Why is this graph called a dot plot?

LIVEWORKSHEETS