READING

B) Complete the article with headings a)–h).

1 _____

There's nothing wrong with enjoying your own company but if you want to make new friends, here are some suggestions.

2 _____

Go out and join a club or a sports team: you don't need to be good at sports to enjoy doing it. It will also make you healthier.

3 _____

The internet can be a great place to make friends. But be careful – not every person online is who they say they are.

4 _____

You can talk to anybody – the person next to you on the bus or at the supermarket checkout. Make a comment about the weather or a request like 'Can you tell me if the bus stops near the station?' Then go on from there.

5 _____

When you talk to people, smile or say something nice about their hair or clothes. Show an interest in them.

6 _____

Choose a quiet café where you can talk and if you like the person, give them your phone number or email address.

7 _____

If they don't get in touch with you, don't worry. It takes time to make a friend.

8 _____

Remember to act naturally. Be honest and people can decide if they like you or not. People who do like you will take an interest in you.
