A cool room

Wayne Dalton is seventeen. There are a lot of people in his family's home – his mum and dad, his two brothers and two sisters, and now Arthur and Sylvia, his grandma and grandpa. Their bed is in Wayne's bedroom. So where is Wayne's bed now? Is it in his brothers' room? No, it isn't. It's in a house in the Daltons' garden. It's very small, but it isn't uncomfortable. There is a living room with a yellow sofa and a TV screen on the wall. There is a place to cook and eat food, and there is also a small bathroom with a toilet and shower. There are some stairs and Wayne's bed is at the top of them, under the roof. There is a small window, so there is a beautiful view of some trees from his bed. Wayne's sister, Lois, thinks his house is cool. Her dream is to have it when Wayne isn't at home any more.
