Orangutan

Orangutans are great apes from Indonesia. Orangutan means man of the forest. They live in Sumatra and Borneo. The scientific name of Orangutan from Northern Sumatra is Pongo Abelii and the scientific name of Orangutan from Borneo is Pongo Pygmaeus.

Orangutans have big bodies. A male orangutan can be more than 100 kilograms and can be quite tall. His height can be up to 150 centimeters tall. Female orangutans are smaller and shorter than the males. A mature female orangutan's weight is about 40 kilograms. Her height is about 120 centimeters tall.

Orangutans have reddish brown hair. Unlike monkeys, they do not have tails. They have strong arms. They use their arms to swing between branches.

Orangutans live with their small family groups. They usually live in the tree branches where they build their nests. Orangutans' favorite food is fruits. They also eat insects, honey, bird eggs, bark, and plants. They sometimes eat meat too. When they are thirsty, they sometimes drink the water from holes in the tree branches.

Orangutans are an endangered species because their habitat is threatened by people doing deforestation. The number of Bornean orangutans around 2017 was estimated at about 104,000 and the Sumatran orangutans about 7,500.

Last semester, my school held an excursion to explore Labuan Bajo. It was a full day trip. Labuan Bajo is a hidden paradise situated in eastern Indonesia. We departed from school early in the morning so we could do many activities.

The first place we visited was Wae Rana beach. It is a small beach, located between Binongko beach and Wae Cecu beach. We enjoyed the sunrise there. Too bad, people were not aware of the cleanliness. Litter was everywhere. The sunrise was beautiful, though. After enjoying the sunrise, we had breakfast. After we finished our breakfast, we went shark diving.

It was the first time for me to see sharks of all kinds. We could also see the underwater creatures, like bright coral, manta rays, turtles, seahorses, and fish.

In the afternoon, we had lunch The food was delicious. We had our free time after lunch. Some of us took some rest, some others explored the place. Our next activity was going to Rangko Cave. There, we had nature and wildlife tours. We enjoyed the beautiful cave shaped by nature. We also swam in the pool inside the cave. The water was so clear that you could see the rocks under water. Before we went home, we went to Padar Island. We wanted to see the landscape in panoramic view, so we hiked for about 30 minutes to reach the peak. It was tiring, but the view was breathtaking. Padar Island is unique because it has several beaches with different colors.

Time Travel Car (Part 1)

It was a fine evening when Monita read her new novel in her bedroom. Suddenly, she saw a green flash outside her room. Monita opened the curtain of her bedroom window. It was then, she felt shocked. The bright green light actually came from a flying car. Monita panicked. She then went outside her room to look for her parents. But nobody was home.

She gathered her courage and went outside. "Hello ..." said Monita slowly. She thought to herself, who is that inside the car. There was no answer. Monita approached the car. "Aaaaa!" shouted Monita when the car's door suddenly opened. Monita looked inside the car but nobody's there.

Then, she heard the car saying, "Get in!" Monita jolted.The car sounded once again, "Come on, Monita. Get in!"

Driven by her curiosity, Monita then got into the car. It was not an ordinary car. It looked sophisticated. There were a lot of colorful buttons on the dashboard panel. One big red button was located at the center of the panel. "Push the red button to start," said the car. Monita was shocked, but she was not scared. Then, she pressed the red button.

After Monita pressed the red button, the engine started. "Buckle up!" said the car. Then, there was a notice on the screen. Monita fastened her seatbelt. The engine revved, and moved slowly. After a few meters, it started to run faster. Then, the car flew! Monita shouted. She was scared, but also excited. When the car was flying, a flashy green light surrounded it. The car moved very fast. Monita felt dizzy and then, everything went black.
