HARRIET TUBMAN: GUIDE TO FREEDOM

Thinking About the Selection

1. Respond: Would you have trusted Harriet Tubman to take you on a long, difficult journey? Why or why not?

2. Recall: What does Tubman do when one of the fugitives wants to go back to the plantation?

3. Analyze Causes and Effects: Explain why Tubman feels she must act this way.

4. Interpret: Tubman says, "We got to go free or die. And freedom's not bought with dust." In your own words, interpret that statement.

5. Assess: Would Tubman be a successful leader in today's world? Why or why not?

- A narrative essay tells the story of real events, people, and places. Narrative essays share these features with fictional stories:
  • People's traits and personalities are developed through their words, actions, and thoughts.
  • The setting of the action may be an important element.

Use a chart like this one to track the elements of a narrative essay.
