Multiplication - Worded Problems

Example:

Mary had 4 piles with 3 oranges in each pile. How many oranges did she have altogether? 4 x 3 = 12 oranges

1. Aleem had 5 sets of three Lego blocks in his bag.
   How many blocks did he have altogether?

____ x ____ = ____ blocks

2. Beena used 4 sets of 2 eggs to make a cake.
   How many eggs did she use?

____ x ____ = ____ eggs

3. There were 6 sets of 3 birds sitting on a wire.
   How many birds were on the wire?

____ x ____ = ____ birds

4. Mr. Ali bought 6 bunches of 5 flowers.

How many flowers did he buy altogether? ____ x ____ = ____ flowers

5. Candace had 4 marbles in each of 3 tins.

How many marbles did she have altogether? ____ x ____ = ____ marbles

LIVEWORKSHEETS