HUMAN RIGHTS

1. Read the views of these teenagers. Do you agree with them? Yes, I do No, I don't

Prakash
from India

In my opinion, a good citizen is someone who knows what's going on in the world.

Caro
from Mexico

From my experience, being a good citizen is about getting involved.

Abeke
from Nigeria

I think it's all about making the world better, more equal and humane.

Lan
from China

Personally, I think it starts with your local community, even your home.

Nakaji
from Burma

I think it's about accepting people as equals.

Amira
from Iraq

For me, it means being able to put yourself in someone else's shoes.

2. Listen to the teenagers. Who is speaking in each case? Write the names.

1. _____ 4. _____

2. _____ 5. _____

3. _____ 6. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Listen again. Answer T (true) or F (false).

a. Caro thinks to be a good citizen, you need to take action globally. T F
b. Abeke thinks that it is important to support people who don't have basic Human Rights. T F
c. Nakaji believes that it is good that we are all different. T F
d. Prakash thinks the most important thing is to know what is going on globally. T F
e. Lan thinks the most important thing is caring about your local community. T F
f. Amira says we need to think about things from other people's points of view. T F

4. Find words for basic human needs in the word cloud. In pairs, try to rank the words in order of importance.

1º _____ 6º _____ 11º _____
2º _____ 7º _____ 12º _____
3º _____ 8º _____ 13º _____
4º _____ 9º _____
5º _____ 10º _____

5. Match the two halves of the statements.

1. We all have the right to believe in	a. our own decisions.
2. We have the right to good	b. what we want to believe in.
3. We have the right to vote in	c. healthcare.
4. We have the right to make	d. work and to relax.
5. Nobody has the right to make	e. us a slave.
6. We all have the right to rest from	f. public elections.

LIVEWORKSHEETS