PETER

1.- I'm eighteen years old, I really like children and I would be happy to work taking care one or more of them. I have two younger siblings and that are super active and naughty, so I have a little experience with kids. I'm available on holidays and weekends.

HANNA

2.- I used to work with children when I was younger and active, but now that I'm senior citizen and tired I don't feel able and prepared to deal with that job. I actually love teaching, however I'd rather to find a job working with teens or adults, I think I can do it better. Because of my age, I would work only some hours a week.

GEORGE

3.- I've worked with teens for a long time and I wouldn't change this choice I've made for anything because, although I am prepared to work with all kind of people, children and adults as well, it will always depend on your preferences. I think you can't change what you like to do. I am workaholic and I have time enough to work full time.

ALEX

I have never worked as a teacher, but I graduated 5 years ago. I've been homeschooling my twins during the pandemic and that's the experience I have. Although I feel comfortable at home and spending time with my family, I'd love to find a part time or why not, a full time job because I love teaching and can't wait to start.

MICHELLE

I think I can't be able to do it, maybe I'm not prepared. Actually, if you ask me, I dislike this occupation. I am not very patient and tolerant enough, but I can't do anything. I need to realize if I will do it for a period of time or I will do it for the rest of my life. I need to work, hopefully a well-paid job soon. I would like to seek a different area to study or travel abroad.
