Once upon a time, there was a man who was living in north Sumatra. He worked hard enough to get their needs. Actually he became old enough to marry, but he still chose to live alone. He lived in a simple hut in a farming field. He did some gardening and fishing for his daily life.

One day, while the man was do fishing, he caught a big golden fish in his trap. It was the biggest catch which he ever had in his life. Surprisingly, this fish turned into a beautiful princess. He felt in love with her and proposed her to be his wife. She said; "Yes, but you have to promise not to tell anyone about the secret that I was once a fish, otherwise there will be a huge disaster". The man made the deal and they got married, lived happily and had a son named Samosir.

Few years later, Samosir would help bringing lunch to his father out in the fields. One day, Samosir was so hungry and he ate his father's lunch. Unfortunately, Toba found out and got furious, and shouted; "You damned son of a fish". Samosir ran home and asked his mother. The mother started crying, felt sad that her husband had broken his promise.

Then she told her son to run up the hills because a huge disaster was about to come. When her son left, she prayed. Soon there was a big earthquake followed by non-stop pouring rain. The whole area got flooded and became Toba Lake. She turned into a fish again and the man became the island of Samosir.
