One day I went to Bandung with my friend for a vacation. We went there on a bus. When we arrived in Cianjur, the bus stopped for a rest. I got off the bus to get a cup of coffee, but my friend didn't. Then I went to a mosque to pray. It took only a few minutes to pray, but when I came out again the bus was not there. It had gone! Shocked and confused. I asked the shopkeeper about the bus. She said that the bus had departed about five minutes ago.

I tried to call my friend on my cell phone, but the battery was running low. I couldn't do anything but hope and pray. After several minutes, my wish came true. The bus came back! I got on the bus and walked to my seat. I was so ashamed when everybody on the bus looked at me. I could feel my face turn red.

I asked my friend why she didn't tell the driver that I was still outside.

"I did, I told him several times that you were outside, but he said that you were in the bus toilet because he saw a man going into the toilet," my friend replied, laughing. The other passengers smiled at me. I was so embarrassed.

Text for questions 4 to 6

I had a football tournament in Virginia Beach when I was in high school. The team was flying down, but we had to book separate flights. As usual, I didn't plan ahead so I spent the night before my 5 am flight packing.

My family was in the process of moving and everything was kind of a mess so I grabbed a random bag from one of the moving boxes. The next morning at the airport, I put my carry-on bag on the conveyor belt and stepped through the gate and security pulled me quickly out of line.

Somehow, a box cutter had wound up in the bag. At 5 am, I had to call my mother for help. In turn, she had to call a family friend who worked at that airport to go in and straighten things out. After several hours, I was declared not a threat. But I missed the flight.

4. What is the writer's intention in writing the text? A
 - A. To persuade the readers to take the same airline.
 - B. To inform the readers about air travel guide.
 - C. To tell about his unpleasant experience.
 - D. To amuse the readers with his story.

I absolutely loved my 15th birthday. I've always wanted to fly in balloon and the trip given by my grandparents as a present is really fun. Des, the pilot and Colin, the road crew were very professional but extremely friendly and welcoming. Flying up, up and away on a hot air balloon ride is truly unforgettable experience like no other. I enjoyed breath-taking views, landmarks and the wonder of nature from a new and unique perspective as they took me to the skies in one of their colourful hot air balloons. I felt exciting and enthusiastic, as I drifted gently across the UK's stunning landscapes at anything up to 5,000 feet, raised smoothly and silently towards the clouds, the only noise the occasional burst of the burners. I travelled where the wind took me. It was a memory to last a lifetime on my personal hot air balloon	I've got a painful experience that I went through last semester. I joined the cross country. We were running this race competing against several other schools. The entire race was long and dreadful. It took place in the desert so it was really hot and humid. We ran up and down the hills. It was getting awful after 10 minutes of the race. People who ran in front of me made me breathe the dust they created. It wasn't so bad until my throat started to hurt. It was very painful. I had a hard time to catch my breath and I sweat a lot. I really hated it. In the end I managed to finish the race. I felt really good after that. I felt fully alive again. That race was a experience, which I would tell people about again and again. Once my flight was over, I sat and sipped a glass of hot chocolate after landing, and I found myself wanting to do it all over again.	horrible experience. That is the reason why I quitted the team a week later.

GIFT OF A FRIEND

Sometimes you think you'll be fine by yourself
'Cause a dream is a wish that you make all alone
It's easy to feel like you don't need help
But it's harder to walk on your own
You'll change inside when you realize

The world comes to life
And everything's bright from beginning to end
When you have a friend by your side
That helps you to find
The beauty you are when you open your heart
And believe in the gift of a friend
The gift of a friend

Someone who knows when you're lost and you're scared
There through the highs and the lows
Someone to count on
Someone who cares
Beside you wherever you go
You'll change inside when you realize

THE TEXT FOR NUMBER 18-20

I was driving on my new car in the north of my city when I had a bad accident and my car hit a post. As I was driving too fast around a bend on the highway, my car suddenly went out of control and crashed. I knew at that time I was a bit sleepy because of the overload works I did the night before. Luckily, I didn't get hurt in this accident.

It was bad but a miracle because I was not hurt. I was just very upset for my carelessness. At that time, the bonnet of my car was destroyed and the right door was broken. I had a car insurance, but my insurance rate would go up because this accident would be on my record.

I called the police on my mobile, and they were on the way. I also called my insurance company and my wife. My wife wanted me to go to the hospital for a medical examination. I thought I was okay and I didn't want to go to the hospital. When I finished with the police and the insurance, I went home to take a rest. My wife was happy and grateful for I survived from an accident

The Greatest Man I Never Knew

Reba McEntire

The greatest man I never knew
Lived just down the hall
And every day we said hello
But never touched at all
He was in his paper
I was in my room
How was I to know he thought I hung the moon

The greatest man I never knew
Came home late every night
He never had too much to say
Too much was on his mind
I never really knew him
And now it seems so sad
Everything he gave to us took all he had

Then the days turned into years
And the memories to black and white
He grew cold like an old winter wind
Blowing across my life...

What does the song describe?

- A. A lonely child.
- B. A solitary son.
- C. A mysterious man.
- D. A hardworking father.

Text 1	Text 2
Last weekend I and my classmates went to the countryside to have a picnic. Before leaving, we made some sandwiches for lunch. We left quite early to avoid the traffic jam. After driving for two hours, we arrived at a very nice place. It was near a river with some big trees around it. The driver parked the car under the tree. Seeing the clear and cool water of the river, my friends and I decided to swim. After having lunch together, we went around the area to enjoy the scenery. We saw some beautiful birds and butterflies. After walking for about an hour, we decided to return to the car and go home. Unfortunately, we could not start up the car. Finally after sometime, we could make the car start up by pushing it. We were happy although we felt a bit tired when we got home.	Yesterday my family and I went to the zoo to see the elephant. When we got to the zoo, we went to the shop to buy some food to give to the animals. After getting the food, we went to the nocturnal house where we saw birds and reptiles which only come out at night. Before having lunch, we went for a ride on the elephant. It was a thrill to ride it. Dad fell off when he let go off the rope, but he was ok. During the lunch we fed some birds in the park. In the afternoon we saw the animals being fed. When we returned home we were very tired but happy. It was because we had so much fun activities at many places at the zoo.
