Seeing Stars.

Hi Ellie,

We're having a great time in America .At the moment, I'm sitting in a Cadillac convertible in Mulholland Drive, Hollywood!
You can see everything in Los Angeles from here.

We're doing a tour of celebrity homes in a private car. It's my mum's birthday present - from Dad. She loves films. At the moment, we're outside Britney Spears's house It's really big and it looks like a traditional Mediterranean villa. I think I can see her living room at the front of the house. There are lots of windows, so she has a great view of Los Angeles!

There's a big balcony but Britney isn't sitting outside. She isn't living here at the moment. Our driver said Britney is in London She's looking for a holiday home there!

Love,
Jen
