Unit 2 Grammar practice

Relative clauses

1 Choose the correct alternatives.

That is the restaurant when / where my parents celebrated their wedding anniversary.

1 Sandra is the girl which / who won the Halloween costume competition.

2 Spain is a country which / when has many beautiful cities.

3 The two weeks before Christmas is the time who / when many people go shopping.

4 That's the boy whose / who sister is getting married tomorrow.

5 Those are the people which / who arranged the wedding ceremony.

6 Those are the gifts who / which I got for my birthday.

3 Complete the sentences with the relative pronouns / adverbs who, which, when, where and whose. Add commas where necessary to the sentences that contain non-defining relative clauses.

The documentary, which we saw last night, was about American customs.

1 Patricia _____ is starting university this week is my older sister.

2 The dress shop _____ you took me to is amazing!

3 Can you return the books _____ you borrowed from me, please?

4 There's the boy _____ broke the window in the school.

5 That café_____we had lunch yesterday was very expensive.

6 Tom _____ father works with me is coming to my house later.

7 She can't remember _____ the exam starts.

Relative pronouns and prepositions

4 Choose the correct alternatives.

High school proms, about / to which people wear formal clothes, are held every year in the USA.

1 Stella's designs, for / about which she is very well known, are unique.

2 My grandfather returned to the Spanish city on / in which he was born.

3 The book True Grit, on / about which the film is based, is fantastic.

4 I was invited to a party to / for which I wore a fancy-dress costume.

5 Their customs, in / about which he didn't know a lot, seemed very strange to him.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5 Complete the sentences with who or whom and write whether the sentences are formal (F) or informal (I).

The man who is celebrating his birthday is over there. I

1 To _____ did you send the flowers?

2 I don't know _____ he went to the party with.

3_____did they ask to babysit the child?

4 With _____ will they be dining this evening?

5 He didn't tell me _____ he had been seeing.

6 Put the words in the correct order to form sentences.

the man / last year / lived with / who / He's / I

He's the man who I lived with last year.

1 whom / to / did / she / the festival / With / go / ?

2 visited / the house / We / the author / in / was born / which

3 a festival / Diwali / is / at / people / light / candles / which

4 saw / a boy / I / went / with / to school / Today / who / I

5 famous / My sister's cakes / delicious / which / are / for / is / she

LIVEWORKSHEETS