My mum's shells!
by Tony Hill, aged 12

We live only 1 kilometre from the sea. So, at the weekend, we often go to the beach. In the winter, I like playing with our dog on the sand. And in the summer, I like swimming in the sea. But my mum likes looking for shells. When she finds a nice one, she puts it in her bag. At the end of the day, she takes the shells home and cleans them.

You can see some of my mum's shells in the photo on the right. She keeps some of them in a wooden box. They're beautiful. They're lots of different shapes and colours. Some are big and some are small. Some are white and some are brown. My mum has more than 500 shells!
