FIRST 1- UNIT 2

VOCABULARY AND GRAMMAR

Section 1: Vocabulary

1Complete the sentences with words formed from the words in capitals.

1 The interviewers are looking for people with high levels of _____, as well as strong qualifications. SOCIAL

2 These chemicals can be very _____so take care when using them. HARM

3 Jenny is far more_____than I am. CAUTION

4 His idea is totally_____. He'll never be able to do it. REAL

5 She wasn't very_____when I told her about my accident. SYMPATHY

6 We're_____that we'll get into the university we want. HOPE

7 I think the internet is a really_____way of finding information. USE

8 We knew what he was going to do before he did it. He's so_____. PREDICT

9 It's important for me to buy a_____ car. I don' t want it to keep breaking down. RELY 2Choose words from each box to complete the sentences.

made	take	talked	carry	put	set

it	off	after	on	up	into

1 Edward wanted to_____ working, but he was 68 so he had to retire.

2 Don't be_____ by the reviews; the film is fantastic!

3 Emma thought she had finally_____ when she was offered her first book deal.

4 I look a lot like my mother, but people say I_____ my father in terms of our personality.

5 They _____ their business from their home and it now employs over 200 people.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6 Helen doesn't like trying new foods, but I_____ her_____ going to the new Japanese restaurant with me, and we both loved it.

Section 2: Grammar

3Read the text and decide which answer (A, B, C or D) best fits each gap.

We had to work 1 _____hard to make a success of our business. We 2_____admit that at times we argued with each other and sometimes we were 3_____ furious with each other. Nevertheless, we stuck together and 4 _____ things have been going very 5_____. If you look at this year's results 6 _____, you can see what we mean. We 7 _____have any time to argue these days.

1	A much	B A bit	C very	D absolutely
2	A free	B fairly	C freely	D quite
3	A very	B absolutely	C fairly	D dreadfully
4	A recent	B lately	C hardly	D close
5	A well	B good	C hard	D much
6	A closely	B nearly	C freely	D completely
7	A lately	B quite	C hardly	D absolutely

4Put the verbs in brackets in the correct form.

Jake regretted 1_____ (not work) harder to pass his exams. He didn't study hard enough to go to university because he couldn't stop 2_____ (go) out with his friends when he should have been studying. However, he remembers one of his teachers 3_____ (say) that it was never too late to learn new things. When he saw an advert to sail around the world, the advice his teacher gave encouraged him 4_____ (do) it. He had always loved 5_____ (be) at sea, so he thought it would be the perfect opportunity to try something challenging. The boat owner promised 6_____ (teach) him all about boats and sailing and made him 7_____ (do) everything over and over again until he could do it perfectly. Although it took him ages 8_____ (get) it right, he finally succeeded. Now he has his own boat charter business in the Caribbean and has an amazing life.

LIVEWORKSHEETS