1.9 Watch or listen to the first part of a webshow called Learning Curve. Ethan catches a train, and a passenger makes small talk with him. Who are sentences 1–6 about? Check (✓) Ethan or passenger.

	Ethan	passenger
1 He starts the conversation.	☐	☐
2 He asks where the other person is going.	☐	☐
3 He's going to City Island.	☐	☐
4 He asks where the other person is from.	☐	☐
5 He's from Pennsylvania.	☐	☐
6 He asks about the other person's job.	☐	☐

Listen to the second part. Put sentences (a-i) in order.

a ☐ Cindy So, what do you do on your webshow?

b ☐ Ethan Oh, you met at work! So, are you having a good time?

c ☐ Cindy Sorry, I don't know Penny that well. By the way, I'm Cindy. I work with Taylor at the gym.

d ☐ Ethan Well, I'm a presenter, a co-host, like Penny.

e [1] Cindy How do you know Penny and Taylor?

f ☐ Ethan Mmm! Well, I love carrot cake.

g ☐ Cindy It's a great party. I got here early so I could bring my famous carrot cake.

h [2] Ethan I'm Ethan. I work with Penny on Learning Curve. It's a webshow. We're presenters.

i ☐ Cindy Hmm, a presenter, that's interesting. And what does that involve?