1) Read the following text about Ryan Reynolds's town.

Omg, I love this picture of my beautiful town, Bedford, New York. It's a great place for people like me, famous people who want some privacy and peace. There are only 4,000 people in Bedford. It's a small town, but it has many things to do and many places to go. There are four schools and three parks. There are small greengrocers' and two big supermarkets, too. There is a famous Mexican restaurant that cooks delicious tacos. I like Mexican food. There aren't soccer fields, but there is a sports centre where you can practise sport. There isn't a cinema or a theatre. It is a very safe place because there are four police stations in the town. There is only one. The only problem is that there isn't a gym to do exercises.
