1. yell
2. reliable
3. patch things up
4. shoplifting
5. plaster
6. stepladder
7. tag along
8. well-off
9. derelict
10. reluctant

a. (phr.v.) To deal with a problem or disagreement in order to repair a relationship.
b. (phr.v.) To follow another's lead specially in going from one place to another.
c. (adj.) Deserving trust, dependable.
d. (adj.) Not wanting to do something and therefore slow to do it.
e. (adj.) Rich, wealthy.
f. (n.) The illegal act of taking goods from a store without paying for them.
g. (v.) To shout or make a loud noise, usually when angry, in pain or excited.
h. (n.) A piece of equipment with steps that can stand on its own and can be folded for carrying.
i. (adj.) To describe places that are not cared for and/or in a bad condition.
j. (n.) A substance that becomes hard as it dries most commonly used in buildings and for medical situations.

LIVEWORKSHEETS