7B VOCABULARY Verb forms: infinitive or gerund?

a Complete each sentence with a verb from the list in the correct form. Write your answers in the VERBS column.

decide feel finish forget continue like mind plan pretend promise remember start try want would like

		VERBS
1	I really don't [redacted] like going to the party tonight. I'm really tired.
2	If you [redacted] to learn to play tennis better, you should take lessons.
3	I'm [redacted] to have a big party for my 60th birthday.
4	Do you [redacted] sunbathing on the beach in summer? I love it!
5	Please [redacted] to turn off the lights before you leave.
6	He [redacted] to like the present although he really hated it.
7	Have you [redacted] eating dinner or should I call you back later?
8	My students don't [redacted] doing their homework because they know it's good practice.
9	[redacted] you [redacted] a coffee after work?
10	Don't [redacted] to call me tonight. You know you never remember!
11	Have you [redacted] where to go on vacation this summer, or are you still thinking about it?
12	I [redacted] learning Chinese last year, but I found it very difficult, so I stopped going to class.
13	Do you think you'll [redacted] living here, or do you think you'll move somewhere else in the future?
14	He [redacted] to call me when he got there. He always does what he says.
15	At least you [redacted] to do the exercise. If you can't finish, I'll help you with it.

LIVEWORKSHEETS