Unit 8 : Good Luck, Bad Luck

Language/ Grammar Focus : Learn and review Present Perfect and the use of for and since. Make questions using How long?

|---|---|
| since | We use since with the present perfect or the past perfect to say when something started: if the starting point is given (two o'clock, last Friday, 1998)I have worked here since December*.*They had been watching since seven o'clock in the morning*.* |
| for | We use for to say how long: if the period of time is given (twenty minutes, two days, one year)We have been waiting for twenty minutes*.*They lived in Manchester for fifteen years*.*We can also use a noun phrase without for:Let's go. We've been waiting nearly an hour*.*I've worked here twenty years*.* |
