MY SCHOOL RULES

Reporter: What's your name and where do you go to school?
Melisa: I'm Melisa and I go to the New Forest School. I'm in Year 7.
Reporter: Do you like your school?
Melisa: Yes I do. The classrooms are really new and the teachers are nice.
Reporter: I see. And are there a lot of students?
Melisa: No, there aren't. There are only around 70 students.
Reporter: When do you start and finish school?
Melisa: We start school at 9:30 and finish at 3:30. Sometimes I do other activities after school, so I don't get home until 5 o'clock.
Reporter: Do you get tired?
Melisa: Not really because school is interesting and we do lots of drama. It's easy to make friends.
Reporter: What subjects do you have?
Melisa: We have all the usual ones, like maths and history, and we have classes outside too.
I like English the most because we act a lot. The class discussions in lessons are great too!
Reporter: Are there any school rules?
Melisa: Yes, but the rules are to be good to other people. We don't wear a school uniform.
