Name :

Class :

This dialogue is for questions number 1 and 2.

Bobby arrives at his school on Monday morning. At the school's lobby, he meets Mrs. Cathy Johnson, his mathematics teacher.

Bobby : (1)...

Mrs. Johnson : Good morning, Bobby.

Bobby : (2)...

Mrs. Johnson : Very well, thank you.

Bobby : Did you have a nice weekend?

Mrs. Johnson : Yes, thank you.

1. The best greeting for this is ...

   A. Hi, Cathy.

   B. Hello, Mrs. Johnson.

   C. Good Morning, Mrs. Cathy.

   D. Good morning, Mrs. Johnson.

2. The most suitable expression for this is ...

   A. How's life?

   B. How are you today?

   C. What's up?

   D. How do you do?

This dialogue is for questions 3 and 4.

Linda and Marry is an old friend. One day, Linda is sitting at the cafeteria with John, her new friend in art class, when she meets Marry.

Linda : Marry, long time no see. How's everything with you?

Marry : Hi, Linda. (3) ... thanks. What about you?

Linda : Not so good. I have tons of homework to do.

Marry : Er, that sounds bad. I hope you can finish it soon.

Linda : Yeah, thank you. By the way, This is John, my new friend in the art class.

Marry : Oh, hello, John. I am Marry, Linda's friend. Nice to meet you.

John : (4)...

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. The best phrase to respond to a greeting is ...

A. I have a headache.

B. Good morning.

C. Everything's fine.

D. How are you getting on?

4. The correct expression is ...

A. Yeah, thank you.

B. Nice to meet you too, Marry.

C. See you, Marry.

D. Catch you later.

This dialogue is for question 5

Andi: "I'm going home now."

Riza: "Okay, good night."

Andi: "See you tomorrow at school."

5. What does Riza say when he is leaving?

A. "Good day."

B. "Good night."

C. "Happy holiday."

D. "Happy weekend."

LIVEWORKSHEETS