Full Name :

Class :

My Motocycle

arrange into best sentences please!

It makes the back part of the seat to be higher than the front part and cause a border which separated the driver's seat and the passenger's seat.

this one will always be my favorite, because there are so many things happened with me and this motorcycle. For me, it is irreplaceable.

The type of my favorite motorcycle is underbones. If you are familiar with various types of motorcycles, then I believe you can imagine what my motorcycle looks like

The dominant color of my motorcycle is red. It has spoke wheels type of rim and standard tire. The original rearview mirror was broken and I replace it with a smaller one

I have a favorite motorcycle. My father bought it for me when I was in Senior High School.

This is the only motorcycle that I have right now, but even if one day I buy another one

The seat of my motorcycle is so long so it can accommodate two persons. I decided to add some foam rubber on it, start from the middle part of the seat up to the back part.

Last year I replaced the original shock absorber with the new one. The color of the new shock absorber is black. A very distinctive part of my motorcycle is the seat. It is because I modified it a little bit from the original shape.

LIVEWORKSHEETS