READING-LISTENING COMPREHENSION 6TH GRADE B

Teacher Gisell Quiel

Name : _____ Grade: _____ Date: _____

The Story of Sarah and Fluffy

1. Listen the first part of the story and then choose the correct answers

Sarah did not like to drink milk, she would say, "No, thanks, Mom, no milk for me. Sarah´s mom know how important it was for her young daughter to drink milk. Milk had calcium and Sarah needed calcium in order to have strong teeth and bones. One afternoon Sarah´s mom spoke to Sarah´s teacher, Mrs. Smith, about her problem with Sarah. Mrs. Smith had an idea. The next day Mrs. Smith gave Sarah an special book to read. The book was called, Fluffy The Cat. Sarah loved kittens. Fluffy was a cat.

2. Select the Correct answers.
   1. What is the Title of the story?
      Fluffy and the Girl The Story of Sarah and the Cat. The Story of Sarah and Fluffy.
   2. What Sarah did not like to drink?
      Milkshake Soda Milk
   3. What does milk have?
      Proteins Minerals Calcium
   4. What is calcium important for?
      To have strong hands To have strong teeth and bones. To have strong ideas.
   5. Who did Sarah´s mother speak to?
      The Principal The Teacher The students
   6. What Mrs. Smith gave to Sarah?
      A cat a book a pencil
   7. What is the name of the Book?
      Fluffy the Dog Oscar the Octopus Fluffy the Cat.
   8. What is the name of the teacher?
      Mrs. Miller Miss Fluffly Mrs. Smith

LIVEWORKSHEETS