Dear Khalid,

Thank you a lot for your letter. It is nice to hear from you. I'm sorry I didn't respond to your last letter because I was busy preparing for my trip. As you know, I've visited many unusual places. This year I spent my holiday in a cold place .It was the North Pole! I'm so excited to tell you about my wonderful trip! The people I travelled with were so friendly. They visited that place three times before. They knew everywhere there and they were very helpful. One day, I got a high fever because of the cold weather. A man in the team called "Ali" stayed with me all night and gave me a traditional medicine to reduce my temperature and soon I felt better. They shared their knowledge and experience with me. They taught me how to set up my tent. It was very amazing. One night, we were afraid because we heard a roar of a polar bear which was wandering around our tents looking for food. After that, we moved farther north where we stayed there for three days. I enjoyed my holiday a lot. I hope you had a wonderful holiday. Write back soon.

Best wishes, Omar
