I live in Paris. We must listen to our teachers in our school and we must be polite. We mustn't fight in the school and we mustn't swear! We mustn't be late in school and we mustn't sleep in class! We mustn't listen to music in the classroom or in the corridors, but we can listen to music in the playground.

Hi! My Name is Michael, I'm sixteen years old and I live in London. There are many rules in my school! We mustn't listen to music, we mustn't run in the corridors, we mustn't eat chewing-gum in the school,... But we must wear a uniform. I hate the school uniform! Another rule that I don't like: we must do our homework! If we break the school rules, we have detention!
