INDIRECT SPEECH: IMPERATIVES

1. Complete the statement, using the imperative of the verb.
   a. Martha told me _____ home before the snowstorm. (be)
   b. Maria says _____ the assignment for tomorrow. (write)
   c. The nurse told me _____enough fluids. (drink)
   d. Shaun said _____ to the doctor before he gets worse. (go)
   e. We told our parents _____ us when they come home. (call)
2. Rewrite the following statements from Direct into Indirect speech.
   a. Ryan told me, "Don't scratch your back too hard."

      _____.
   b. She says, "Go see the new Black widow movie."

      _____.
   c. They asked us, "Clean the room before the guests arrive."

      _____.
   d. My mom told us, "Be home before midnight"

      _____.
3. Read each statement and choose the incorrect word.
   a. The teacher told us be home on time.
   b. The sign downtown said, "to pack all the emergency supplies."
   c. Our boss told us two deliver the report by tomorrow.
   d. Jenny asked to write the email by the end of the day.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

INDIRECT SPEECH: SAY AND TELL

1. Complete the descriptions with the name of a natural disaster.
   a. _____: A violent storm with circular winds with round shaped clouds.
   b. _____: a large amount of water covering an area is usually dry.
   c. _____: A long period during which there is no rain.
   d. _____: A huge mass of snow and ice that falls down a mountain side.
2. Identify in the following statements if they mention the listener.
   a. My boss told me to carry the files to the second floor. _____
   b. He said not to forget to close all the windows and doors. _____
   c. The broadcast told us to stay home until the storm goes through the city. ____
   d. The article said the influenza had caused more than 2000 deaths. ____
3. Rewrite the each of the statements into an indirect speech.
   a. They said, "the storm is the worst in modern history."
      _____.
   b. My mother told me, "Your bedroom is a mess."
      _____.
   c. He said, "you can go out and play after lunch."
      _____.
   d. She said, "the storm has done a lot of damage."
      _____.
   e. I told my family, "I will get the money to pay the rent."
      _____.
4. Rewrite the previous statements using "that"

a. _____.
b. _____.
c. _____.
d. _____.
e. _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS