My Laptop

I have a laptop. My father bought it for me last month. It is a nice laptop with black color. It has a 14-inch screen. This is the latest product from Asus.

The performance of this laptop is also great. I can play games that require high specifications using it. I can also play music, watch movies and draw using it. And the most important thing is that I can type using it. So, if I have the assignment from my teacher, it will help me. I also can find many references on the internet using my laptop.

I really like this new laptop. Because it always be helpful to me in many situations.
