Interdisciplinary Unit – Five Loaves and Two Fishes

Read the story below. Choose the correct answer.

Many people came to hear Jesus teach. After a while the people got hungry. Jesus wanted to give them something to eat but the disciples wanted him to send them away to find food. Jesus asked the disciples to see if anyone had food. Andrew told Jesus that a little boy had five loaves and two small fish. So Jesus took the food, prayed for it and gave it to His disciples to give out to the people. The disciples asked everyone to sit down and then shared out the food. When everyone was done eating twelve baskets of leftovers was collected. Many people ate because a little boy shared his lunch.
