

Le Puzzle de la Nourriture

Solve the clues below and enter them into the correct number spot on the puzzle (answers to these clues are in French!). The letters in the shaded boxes, reading from top to bottom, form a sentence. Write it on the lines below and translate it to English!

Puzzle
Numéro
Un:

1. Salty pork that you might have for a holiday dinner: _____
2. _____ a day, keeps the doctor away! (the words in French!)
3. Can be white, orange, or even blue (and stinky!): _____
4. A sweet and sticky fruit that has a crown: _____
5. A fruit that has a large pit in the center: _____
6. A vegetable that might make you cry: _____
7. A common meat used in hamburgers: _____
8. A dessert that is commonly served at birthdays: _____
9. What you collect if you go out for Halloween: _____

10. A baguette, rye, and sourdough are all examples of... : _____
11. A potato side dish often served at fast food restaurants: _____
12. A very sour fruit: _____
13. A hot drink adults might drink in the morning: _____
14. A fruit that comes on stems in bunches: _____
15. A bunch of vegetables cut up and mixed together, often including lettuce: _____
16. The last meal of the day: _____

In English, this means: _____

Puzzle
Numéro
Deux:

1. The savoury beans: des haricots _____
2. A sticky fruit: un _____
3. I want: _____
4. A sweet coffee: _____
5. We want: _____
6. A good pie: Une _____ tarte
7. The hot pasta: Les pâtes _____
8. They (f.pl.) want: _____
9. The bland salad: La salade _____
10. You (pl.) want: vous _____
11. The cold water: L'eau _____
12. Crunchy peppers: Des poivrons _____
13. Juicy strawberries: Des fraises _____
14. He wants: _____
15. Fresh tomatoes: Des tomates _____