Vocabulary 1

Annihilate	Insurgent	Crumbs	Impatiently	Catharsis	Handlebar
Assertion	Unprincipled	Anomaly	Heretic	Smoothed	Devotee

1- After World War II, we might reflect on the fact that nobody won the war at all. People in Hiroshima are still suffering the consequences of having poisoned water, cancer, and any _____ in their bodies due to the nuclear bomb. In fact, we can make an _____ that the real intention of participants was to _____ entire families under _____excuses such as finishing the war and moving forward the Cold War stage.

2- The fingerprint scanner is located on the right _____, and a single long press will scan your digit and boot up the bike. You have to wait until this process ends and do not run _____. It takes time to adapt yourself to this new system.

3- Protestants began sharing their perspectives towards the Catholic Church due to the socio-cultural processes that Middle Ages society was suffering at that time. Martin Luther was considered an _____ individual due to his _____ act of rejecting indulgences. Notwithstanding, he was a _____ in the past and in fact was ordained to the priesthood in 1507.

4- Today healthy food is more a fashionable lifestyle than a real sense of awareness of taking care of the body. Conciliation among vegetarian, low carb and meat-based diets _____ the way to an agreement regarding what is good for the body. For some people is better to eat salads for lunch with bread _____ and slices of salmon. For others, eating rice, soup, and red meat is more a matter of cultural principles. In other cases, veganism has become a _____ while not eating animals.

Vocabulary 2

Assimilate	Divorced from	Initiative	Oblige	Predominant	Suppress
Confine	Ethnicity	Integral	Persist	Revival	Target

1- One of the most _____ behaviors in American culture is eating a lot of fast food. For many people in the States, _____ greasy food from their daily diets is almost impossible. In the same way, having the will to avoid sugar is another challenge. Although medical campaigns against obesity and cardiovascular diseases _____ on modifying bad habits in the _____ population, depression, poverty and mass media manipulation _____people to eat what they should not.

2- Different senators throughout history have had the _____ to promote more taxes on unhealthy food. Some of them have had success and some others have encountered different challenges on this matter. For example, obesity has become another type of disability. Some of these patients are allowed to be _____ in their homes because of their weight. They cannot move, run or go downstairs without help. 911 has also reported a great number of emergencies involving these people who are usually isolated and helpless and when they arrive home sometimes there are no signs of _____ and they simply die because of the lack of support from families. As soon as they start getting weight, they are abandoned, they get _____ from their partners or lose their jobs. Then, an _____ part of the curriculum in the schools must be how to have a better life style and prevent these situations in the future.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS